Sabha Starred Question 47, answered on 28-7-1993 may please be substituted by the following:

"2273 Redline buses are plying on 808 routes. Besides, 815 private buses under old STA permit are also plying in the city of Delhi. The details are in Annexure I and Annexure II."

[The Deputy Chairman in the Chair]

SHRIMATI MIRA DAS (Orissa) Madam, at least, after 10 days I could get a reply to my question. I am very thankful to the hon. Minister. It will take me eight days to go through the names, whether these names are correct or not. Madam, only today I have got this list. I am not in a position to ask any supplementary.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Papers to be laid on the Table. (Interruptions).

SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA (Gujarat): Madam... (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Were you the questioner?

SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA: Yes.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Then you put your question. (Interruptions). Not everybody. There is a certain procedure for that.

SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA: my question at that time was, what is the number of the owners of the fleet. You gave a list, not total number of owners. I have to count it. Secondly, I had specifically asked about the number of buses owned by the owners so that I would be able to know whether there was concentration of bus owning by any owner, whether somebody has cornered more routes and somebody is left out.

SHRI JAGDISH TYTLER: I would like to inform the hon. Member that in all about 10,635 applications were received. Then there was draw of lots which was held in the Talkatora Stadium. Madam, about 8000 people were present there. Only 3000 permits were given. Out of which 914 permits were given to ex-servicemen, 450 to the Scheduled Castes and 225 to the Scheduled Tribes. The total number of people, who were selected on that particular day, was 2730. There is not a single person who has received two permits.
